

Summer

Acts of Kindness For Families

- Leave encouraging chalk messages
- Pick up litter in your neighborhood.
- Leave bubbles on someone's doorstep (or at the park).
- Do yard work for an elderly neighbor.
- Pick some flowers for someone who is shut in.
- Make a bath for the birds or butterflies.
- Dry the slides and swing seats at the park after it rains.
- Handout ice pops/popsicles to friends.
- Water a neighbor's garden if they are away.
- Buy a glass of lemonade from anyone who sets up a stand.
- If you go for ice cream, pay for the family behind you.
- Make encouragement word rocks and leave them in random places.
- Plant a tree.
- Invite your neighbors over for ice cream floats.
- Offer to wash someone's car.
- Buy a summer themed book for your local library.
- Donate bottles of sunscreen to organizations that help families or children.
- Set up a table for surplus garden produce, so people can help themselves.
- Put up a solitary bee house.
- Offer a cold drink to the trash collectors or mail carriers on a hot day.

